The future that nobody knows? reprint of Jan 3, 1958, editorial; too often we disregard lessons of past, yet history repeats itself; we know what constitutes fundamental truth; with faith in wisdom of Divine Providence, we can face challenges of future, Ja 4 p 68
A plea to alumni not to forsake their colleges; financial difficulties of America's private universities are unprecedented; alumni who are holding aloof from their colleges are hurting their alma maters; immediate task is to save private colleges, universities; reform can be expected later, Ja 11 p 84
Big fall in profits—what it means to the economy; emphasis has been placed on "curbing inflation," stimulating business recovery; public should be told that diminishing profits due to upward surge of costs are basis for extraordinary hardships being suffered in national economy, Ja 18 p 80
Needed—a new form of wage and price control; with growing population, governmental regulation becomes more essential or else chaos will ensue; wage, price control can be applied only to big companies and unions; program would be temporary, imposed to prevent further harm to nation rather than interfere with free-enterprise system, Ja 25 p 92
Two years more of political irresponsibility? country is not getting advantages of responsive Congress in domestic, international affairs; what is needed is formula placing responsibility on single party by giving it control of legislative, executive branches of Government, F 1 p 80
Fighting two wars; for last five years, executive branch of Government has been fighting two wars—one in Vietnam, other at home in Congress; it is most unfortunate that military strategy is criticized by members of Congress, and enemy is given impression that public is not supporting armed services, F 8 p 92
Will revenue-sharing mean power-sharing? President Nixon has said whatever grants are made to States, cities under proposed revenue-sharing will be "without any strings" attached; but "federal assistance" projects will bring series of restraints on freedom of individuals, organizations, F 15 p 100
The crumbling hemisphere; preoccupation of U S with its own domestic troubles, expensive war in Vietnam has diverted attention from what has been happening in Central, South America, where relations with U S are deteriorating seriously, Communists are making new gains, F 22 p 88

Have the Russians bought Cuba? Soviet Union has been financing Cuban Government, using the island as a base in disregard of Monroe Doctrine; problem raised by what is happening in Cuba cannot be brushed aside, for it has become one of the colonies of the Soviet Union, Mr 15 p 100
"Words and actions"; lead editorial from "Chicago Tribune" of March 7 offers frank commentary on problems confronting a President as he answers questions at news conferences; full text of editorial is published, Mr 22 p 92
Self-determination of peoples? basic principle behind our participation in Vietnam war is that peoples should have right to determine their own form of government; captive nations of Eastern Europe, too, should be free from domination, Mr 29 p 92
To the people of North Vietnam; it may seem difficult for Americans to reach the people of North Vietnam, yet ways can be found to tell them what can be done for them if they manifest desire for peace, begin to express themselves in favor of new approach to problem of concluding the war, Ap 5 p 104
Why the Calley case opens up worldwide debate; it seems unfair to say that it is "murder" when civilians are killed in a small ground action, but permit large-scale bombings which can destroy huge number of civilians; need becomes urgent for limitation of armaments, definition of kind of fighting permissible in reprisal against attack, Ap 12 p 96
Internal security of the U S depends upon the FBI; radicals would like nothing better than to tear down the Federal Bureau of Investigation because the FBI can be relied upon to carry on inside U S investigations of subversion, of espionage, and of any conspiracy against Government, Ap 19 p 112
"War is hell"; nation has been aroused over Calley case; Baptist minister who served as Army chaplain writes to give his views on "combat psychology in actual war"; Senator Strom Thurmond asserts that there is difference between "war casualties" and "murder"; Calley action shows that war is hell, Ap 26 p 96
